Principles and Plan of the Democratic Organization.

Believing that the Union can not be restored or prosperously maintained except on the basis of the Constitution adopted at Philadelphia, on the 17th of September, 1787, we pledge ourselves to each other, while upholding the Constitution and laws of the Federal Government, that we will, at the same time, and henceforth at all times, per fectly observe, as well as clearly and steadily recognize, the rights of the people in every State, north and south, cast and west, according to the terms of the original compact. PLATFORM.

We adopt and affirm as our own the following principles as expressed by Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, upon the momentous issues now before the people, and in adopting them we are for an open, constitutional opposition to all fanatical party movements, but especially to all secret political societies or organiza-

ADMONITION OF JACKSON.

[Farewell Address, March 3, 1827.] "But the Constitution cannot be maintained nor the Union preserved, in opposition to public feeling, by the mere exertion of the coercive powers confided to the General Government. The foundations must be laid in the affections of the people; in the security which it gives to life, liberty and property in every quarter of the country; and in the fraternal attachments which the citizens of the several States bear one to another as members of one political family, mutually contributing to promote the happiness of each other.
